

Volunteer Opportunities

The City of Rogers values our volunteers. Volunteers keep the community strong by sharing their time, talents and resources to care for other citizens and the city. Several departments have special and/or ongoing needs for individual and group volunteers. Take a look at how you can invest in your community!

See current volunteer opportunities here.